

Job Announcement

Date: 06/01/2021

Location: San Diego, CA

Position: Part Time THPP NMD/THP Plus Peer Support Partner

Job Description:

The primary responsibility of the Peer support partner will be to use their own lived experience in providing culturally humble and trauma-informed services to young adult's ages 18-24 with the intent of furthering the young adult's treatment goals and stabilizing their placement. The level of services provided varies based on the needs of each client.

Qualifications:

1. Must have graduated high school or obtained their GED; Associates Degree or higher level of education from an accredited university is preferred. Original High School Diploma or GED must be provided.
2. Lived experience as a service recipient or caregiver of a service recipient of Children's Behavioral Health Services, Child Welfare Services, the juvenile justice system, or special education, and/or parenting experience and/or experience with substance use/abuse.
3. Experience as a youth educator and experience providing culturally humble services to diverse populations is preferred.
4. Capacity to work independently in the field, willingness to work collaboratively.
5. Excellent communication skills, professional demeanor and strong organizational skills
6. Must possess a valid California (or other state) Driver's License and have a good driving record
7. Must be able to meet all requirements for working at a Community Care Licensed facility including background screening, TB, drug screen, and physical
8. Bilingual (Spanish/English) preferred

Benefits Include:

- ❖ 15 Paid Holidays every calendar year in addition to a generous vacation and sick accrual policy
- ❖ Access for all employees to: Employee Wellness and Engagement Programs / Health Advocate Program / Employee Assistance Program / 401k Retirement plan / Employer paid and Supplemental life insurance options

Salary Range: $16.50 - $17.00 per hour

Employee Status: Non-Exempt, Part Time

Send resume to: Walden Family Services
Attention: Dr. Darjene Graham-Perez
Email: dgrahamperez@waldenfamily.org

Deadline for Application: Monday June 7th at 5pm